Elena Hanson is a U.S. CPA whose practice focuses on cross-border taxation. Her specialty is to provide high quality advice and tax compliance services on US taxation for Canadian residents, investors and businesses and to assist American individuals and businesses with their relocation and expansion to Canada. She believes that good tax planning and maintenance is the way for taxpayers to keep their hard earned income and maximize profits. There are too many people and business entities which discover the harsh consequences of double taxation and mismatch in the US and Canadian tax systems, much of which could have been prevented with prior tax planning and elections.

Elena's inspiration, motivation and energy comes from her clients and serving their needs She is excited to help her clients to achieve their financial goals.
